

Musical Movie Matinee Presents:

“The Producers”

Wednesday, February 3rd at 3pm
Auditorium

The Producers (1967) is a classic satirical comedy directed by Mel Brooks. The film follows down-on-his-luck Broadway producer Max Bialystock and his timid accountant, Leo Bloom, as they hatch a scheme to make a fortune by producing a show guaranteed to fail. Their outrageous plan backfires when the intentionally terrible musical becomes an unexpected hit, leading to a series of hilarious and chaotic consequences.

Run Time: 1hr 28 min

Sponsored by the BRA Music Committee

Questions? Contact Don Killgallon at dkillgall@gmail.com or 410-804-7446.