Charles Lindbergh

Presenter: Jerry Kahan

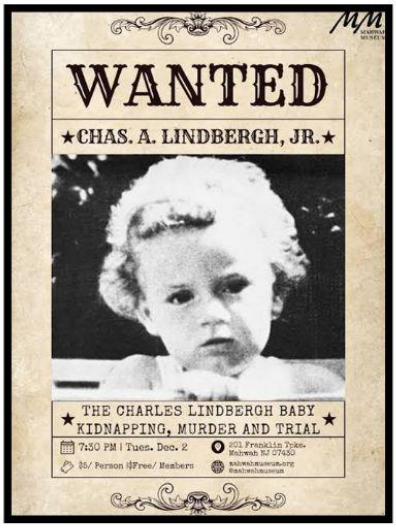

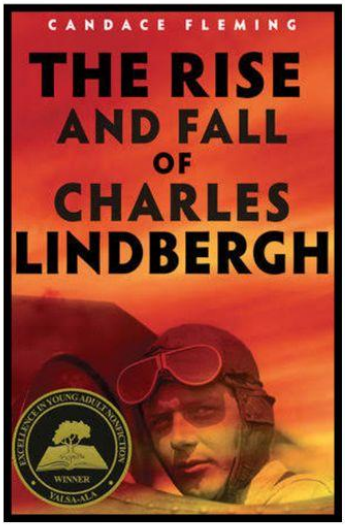

Wednesday, November 11th at 3pm
Auditorium

Charles Lindbergh (1902–1974) was an American aviator best known for making the first solo nonstop flight across the Atlantic Ocean. In 1927, he flew the Spirit of St. Louis from New York to Paris, a journey of about 3,600 miles that took more than 33 hours. His achievement made him an international hero and helped spark worldwide interest in aviation.

Sponsored by the Multicultural Committee

Questions? Contact Robert Youngblood at rbyoungblood@gmail.com